North Torrance Lions Club Show Slated Thursday

Comedian Bub Thomas, who learned his trade in the days when an emcee had to tie the show together with all types of songs and dances, will be the head man in the musical production of "The Lions Roar," when it is presented next Thursday evening at the Torrance High School auditorium. A family type vaudeville show will see singers, dancers, jugglers, and an outstanding magician is being sponsored by the North Torrance Lions club as a fund raising project for the club's various community charity programs.

A $1 donation of the club's charity fund is being asked for admission to the show. A number of gifts will be distributed among those attending the performance. Tickets will be sold at the door and seats will be on a "first come, first served" basis, Lions Club officials report.

Officer Don Hartel Speaks to Students

Members of three kindergarten classes at Steele Elementary School got the inside story on how a policeman can help them last week from Officer Don Hartel.

The youngsters quizzed the Torrance officer on various aspects of his work and eagerly inspected a squad car. Taking part were the classes of Mrs. Geraldine Skelton, Mrs. Laura Denton, and Miss Georgianna Postolou.

Cooperative Nursery Has New Officers

Harold Anson has been elected the new president of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School. Elected with Anson at the recent business meeting were Mrs. Jack Brunson and Mrs. Seymour Bilowit, vice-presidents; Mrs. Mark Throssel, secretary; and Marvin Goettsch, treasurer. Their term of office starts on June 1.

The nursery school has been operating for pre-school children for the past nine years and is sponsored by Torrance Adult Education. Mothers and fathers of children enrolled in the school participate actively in maintaining the school's facilities, as well as taking part in the parent education program which is directed by Mrs. Milton Barter.

Applications for the Fall are now being taken. For more information about the school, call Mrs. Dewey French at FR 4-3988 or Mrs. Tom Miller at FR 6-2883.

Research on Cancer

In Los Angeles County alone, the American Cancer Society is supporting nearly 50 cancer research teams in 10 leading institutions. Many scientists are working under long-term grants ranging from 2 to 5 years, providing the most effective conditions for its vital work, the Society reports.
